Sung by all.

National Anthem

O say can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light, what so proud - ly we hailed at the twi - light's last gleam - ing, whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the pe - ri - lous fight, o'er the ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream - ing?
And the rock - ets' red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star - span - gled ban - ner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 55:6–11

*The Reverend Elder Nancy L. Wilson
Moderator, Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches*

Seek the Lord while he wills to be found; call upon him when he draws near. Let the wicked forsake their ways and the evil ones their thoughts; and let them turn to the Lord, and he will have compassion, and to our God, for he will richly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as rain and snow fall from the heavens and return not again, but water the earth, bringing forth life and giving growth, seed for sowing and bread for eating, so is my word that goes forth from my mouth; it will not return to me empty; but it will accomplish that which I have purposed, and prosper in that for which I sent it.

Elder Wilson            The Word of the Lord.
People                    Thanks be to God.

PSALM 116:4–12

*Rabbi Julie Schonfeld
Executive Vice President, Rabbinical Assembly*

Rabbi Schonfeld        Gracious is the Lord and righteous;
People                    our God is full of compassion.
Rabbi Schonfeld        The Lord watches over the innocent;
People                    I was brought very low, and he helped me.
Rabbi Schonfeld        Turn again to your rest, O my soul,
People                    for the Lord has treated you well.
Rabbi Schonfeld        For you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
People                    I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.
Rabbi Schonfeld        I believed, even when I said, “I have been brought very low.”
People                    In my distress I said, “No one can be trusted.”
Rabbi Schonfeld        How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things he has done for me?
People                    I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon the Name of the Lord.
Rabbi Schonfeld        I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

ANTHEM

Sung by the Cathedral Choir.

John Rutter (b. 1945)

For the beauty of the earth

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and stars of light.
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For each perfect gift of thine to our race so freely given,
graces human and divine,
flowers of earth and buds of heaven,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

*Kathryn Lohre

Keep this nation under your care.

People Guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Ms. Lohre Give courage to the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives to hear the people's voice and to provide for the common good. Give them the vision to care for your creation. Lead them to willingly fulfill our obligations and responsibilities in the community of nations. Keep this nation under your care.

THE SECOND READING

II Corinthians 4:6-10

*His Eminence Donald Cardinal Wuerl
Roman Catholic Archbishop of Washington, District of Columbia*

It is God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies.

Cardinal Wuerl The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

Sung by the Children of the Gospel Choir.

Patrick Lundy (b. 1967)

Determined to Go On

To go on; I'm determined; yes I am, to go on.
Whatever comes my way; I'll trust you and obey.
For I am determined, yes, I am, to go on.

I'm pressing on, the upward way;
New heights I'm gaining each and every day.

Determined, I will make it.
Determined, I will take it.
The race is not given to the swift, nor to the strong;
But to the one who endureth, 'til the very end.

Might not be able to feel it, nor even see it;
Walk by faith, not by sight.

It's mine, mine, my healing
It's mine, mine, my deliverance
It's mine, mine, my breakthrough
It's mine, mine, my blessing

Say Yes! I believe it.
Say Yes! I receive it.

For I am determined yes, I am, to go on.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE WHO SERVE

*Sapreet Kaur
National Executive Director, The Sikh Coalition*

Ms. Kaur God of compassion: be near to all who call upon your name in the course of daily life, work, and service. You call and gift us for work that brings us joy and embodies concern for our neighbors. Make us glad and grateful for the strength to serve you and our neighbor. Let us pray for those who, through any form of service, offer themselves in devotion to our nation.

*The Reverend Charles Jenkins II
Senior Pastor, Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois*

Rev. Jenkins Almighty God, we commend to your care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad. Grant them a sense of your abiding presence: strengthen them in every trial and temptation, defend them in places of danger and peril; sustain them in their courage and dedication. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Rev. Jenkins God of all creation: we pray for all who work in places of danger: who rush in to bring help and comfort; who offer hope when others flee to safety. Keep them under your watchful eye; that they may continue to save lives, ease pain, and by their presence mend the torn fabric of lives and social order. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Rev. Jenkins Almighty God: bless your people who govern in every place. Instill the leaders of states and school boards, counties and cities, courts and agencies with a disposition to use their authority for the betterment of all the people of this nation. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

*Dr. Stephen F. Schneck
Director of the Institute for Policy Research and Catholic Studies, Catholic University of America*

Dr. Schneck Give to all the people of our land, O God, the desire to serve you in their life and vocation. May your presence be manifest in all that we say and do. Weave together the work of every hand and the commitment of every heart: for we recognize our interdependence, our responsibilities to one another, and the mutuality of our destiny. Let us pray to the Lord.

THE THIRD READING

Matthew 5:13–16

*The Reverend Gabriel Salguero
President, National Latino Evangelical Coalition*

Jesus said, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

Rev. Salguero The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

Allison Mondel
Cantor, Washington National Cathedral

Nunc gaudeant

Hildegard of Bingen (1098–1179)

Translated from Latin: Now let the maternal heart of the Church rejoice, for in celestial harmony her children are gathered into her bosom.

PRAYERS FOR THE PEOPLE

Rabbi Sharon Brous
Founding Rabbi, IKAR Jewish Community

Rabbi Brous

God of love: you challenge us to widen the boundaries of our hearts. You know us better than we know ourselves: the distinctions we make, the favoritism we practice, the ways we live as impediments to your mercy. By your transforming word of love, give depth to our faith; that our actions may witness to the wideness of your mercy. Let us pray that you would come among us as presence, as light, as life.

The Reverend Dr. Serene Jones
President of the Faculty, Union Theological Seminary, New York, New York

Dr. Jones

Challenge us, O God: that even as we love our own country, you would have us develop a global perspective. In your eyes, the world is our neighborhood. Grant us every necessary grace to love our neighbors as ourselves. Open our eyes to see the life-giving and the good in every person and every place. As neighbors become friends, may we work to restore the wonder of the world you have made. Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours;

People

That we may love one another as you love us.

Dr. Jones

Cause us to “put our bodies and souls in motion” in the spirit of our brother Martin on behalf of the poor and disenfranchised, the worn and the weary, the bruised and the afflicted. Renew our capacity for mercy; fashion in us a dream for our time, powerful enough to transform the lives of all those whom you love; for the well-being of all you have made. Bless all those whose lives are closely linked with ours;

People

Dr. Jones

Call us to join the artists and artisans, the preachers and the prophets, the laborers and the belabored who hold aloft the lamp of your truth in a world too willing to settle for darkness. Give us such a heart for the newness you would bring that all lesser things will fail to satisfy. Bless those whose lives are closely linked with ours;

People

That we may love one another as you love us.

His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America
Primate of the Greek Orthodox Church in America and Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate

Archbishop Demetrios

Open our hearts, God of all, to pray for those who will this day face any great decision, for all who will engage in settling the affairs of peoples and of nations, for all who mold public opinion in our time, for all who write what others will read. Send us forth to work another day, surrounded by your lovingkindness, pledged to faithful service, standing in your strength and not our own. As former things pass away, O God, make all things new. Let us pray to the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

*Dr. Wintley Phipps
President and Chief Executive Officer, US Dream Academy*

I believe

Ervin Drake/Irvin Graham/Jimmy Shirl/Al Stillman

I believe for every drop of rain that falls a flower grows.
I believe that somewhere in the darkest night a candle glows.
I believe for everyone who goes astray someone will come to show the way.
I believe, I believe.

I believe above the storm the smallest prayer will still be heard.
I believe that someone in the great somewhere hears every word.
Every time I hear a newborn baby cry, or touch a leaf, or see the sky, then I know why I believe!

A PRAYER FOR THE NATION

*The Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori
Presiding Bishop and Primate of The Episcopal Church*

Bishop Jefferts Schori

Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage.
Make us always remember your generosity and constantly do your will.
Bless our land with honest industry and an honorable way of life.
Save us from violence, discord, and confusion;
from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.
Make us who come from many nations with many different languages a united people.
Defend our liberties and give those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government the spirit of wisdom, that there might be justice and peace in our land.
When times are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful, and in troubled times, do not let our trust in you fail.
In your holy Name we pray.

People

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*The Reverend Kirbyjon Caldwell
Senior Pastor, Windsor Village United Methodist Church, Houston, Texas*

Rev. Caldwell

As we join our prayers with those of people across the nation, so we say, each in our own language, the prayer that Jesus has taught us,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,

America! America!

God shed his grace on thee,

O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life!

America! America!

thy liberty in law.

BLESSING

Laila Muhammad
Founder and Executive Director, Ash-Shamsiyyah/The Umbrella Family Service, Chicago, Illinois

Rabbi Rick Jacobs
President, Union for Reform Judaism, New York, New York

Ms. Muhammad The Lord bless you and keep you.

Rabbi Jacobs and give you peace.
All Amen.

SENDING FORTH

The Reverend Dr. Raphael Gamaliel Warnock
Senior Pastor, Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia

Dr. Warnock closes the service in the tradition and in spirit of Dr. King.

Dr. Warnock And I dreamed a dream. I saw a land. And on the hills walked men and women, boys and girls, hand in hand. They were diverse in backgrounds, variegated in their humanity. They looked into each other's eyes, and they were not afraid. And I said to the one standing beside me, "What is this?" And he said, "It exists already in the hearts of those who have the courage to believe and struggle." And so I asked, "When is this?" And he said "When we learn the simple art of loving one another as sisters and brothers."

For as your servant Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., said—from this very pulpit on the last Sunday sermon of his life—"We must all learn to live together as brothers and sisters or we will all perish together as fools."

Let us recommit ourselves this day to one another and to the work of building together the beloved community. May God transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of the human family. And through us may all the families of the earth be blessed. To God who loves us into freedom and frees us into loving, we offer this prayer.

People Amen.
